KUHIO TICKET CARRIES PRIMARIES BY BIG ODDS

Rice Carried Only Home Island.—Maui Went to Princec
By Small Majority—Robinson Defeats
Cooke For Senate

With the exception of Kauai, every county in the group returned a majority for Kuhio against Rice as a result of last Saturday's primary election. On Kauai (Rice's home county) the vote was surprisingly light, and Rice's majority was much less than had been expected.

Kuhio showed his greatest strength on Hawaii, where his plurality was overwhelming; and on Oahu, both districts went strongly for the present incumbent. Considerable surprise was occasioned by the fact that even in the Fourth District, which had generally been conceded to Rice, Kuhio polled nearly 300 majority over his opponent.

In reality, Kuhio's hardest fight was right here on Maui, where it required the Molokai settlement vote to place him in the lead of Rice. Kalaupapa, however, with its 156 votes for the Princec, gave the latter a majority of 102.

In the race for the senatorship nomination, Robinson won hands down over Cooke, receiving majorities in every precinct except Lahaina, Puunene, Hamakua, Huelo, and two of the four Molokai precincts. Antone Garcia surprised even his friends in the showing he made for a House nomination, coming in at the head of the list, with P. J. Goodness two votes behind. John Wilcox, of Hana lost the nomination to R. J. K. Nawahine, of the Fifth Precinct, by 13 votes.

The detailed results of the election were received by the 'News' by telephone and wireless on Saturday evening, and posted in front of the News' office, where a very large crowd was assembled, and by 9 o'clock the general results were pretty well known. The results from Pukoo, Kaunakakai, and Kalaupapa were combined and sent by wireless, and it was not until Thursday that the segregated vote reached Wailuku.

The judges at precinct 19, Halawa, sealed all the records of returns up in the sack with the ballots, and as this bag cannot be opened, except by order of the supreme court, the official returns from this one precinct are not available. With this one exception, the accompanying table is in accordance with the official returns, as received at the office of County Clerk.

Delightful Beach Party

Miss Muriel Duncan was the charming young hostess at a beach party, at her home in Kahului, last Saturday. Some twenty of her school-girl friends gathered at the Duncan home in the morning and spent the entire day in bathing and having a general good time. A delicious lunch was served at noon-time. Those in the party besides the hostess, were: Misses Dorothy Lindsay, Elizabeth Lindsay, Ruth Lindsay, Reta Rosecrans, Alice Walker, Annie Walker, Gladys Meinecke, Irene Wells, Margaret Hair, Dorothy Hair, Doris Hair, Olive Villiers, Eileen Walsh, Ruth Parker, Winnifred Weddick, Martha Alken, Elizabeth Walsh, Althea Case, Edith Fields, Grace Walsh, Margaret Sparks, Hewitt Sparks.

Bowlers Stay Home

Account No Money

The Wailuku bowlers did not go to Honolulu last night, as had been expected, to roll a Regatta match with the Oahu bunch. The reason is solely one of finances. The boys had hoped to net enough from the dance they gave last Saturday evening to pay their steamer fare, but although the hop was a great success in so far as a pleasant time was concerned, the returns only amounted to about $30, after expenses had been paid. The money on hand, it is stated, will be held as the nucleus of a fund to be used to take the team to Honolulu next February, for the annual Carnival matches.

Plan To Cut Farmers Out

Suggestion That Sunday Lunch To Civic Convention Be Given At Paia.—Plans For Big Event Taking Shape.

An effort is being made by the Paia residents to have the Kulaha home-owners cut out of the honor of entertaining the delegates to the Civic Convention at lunch on Sunday, October 4. The committee in charge of the arrangements has been asked to have the noon-day feed take place in one of the Paia sugar warehouses, instead of some place in the pineapple section. Whether or not this plan will be adopted has not yet been definitely decided. If it is, the visitors will possibly be given a glimpse of the Haiku district from automobiles before being taken to Lahaina for the dinner in the evening of the same day.

Autos Requisitioned.

The arrangements committee has decided that all Chamber of Commerce members fortunate enough to own one or more automobiles, will be expected to place these machines at the disposal of the committee on the Sunday the Convention is in session, for the purpose of giving the visitors an opportunity to see as much of the beauties of Maui as possible. Chairman von Tempky is making arrangements to show the wonders of Haleakala to as many of the visitors as care to make the trip on Sunday. He has served notice, however, that it will be necessary for those of the delegates who plan to make this ascent to bring with them their own saddles and slickers—the Maui supply of these necessary articles being decidedly inadequate.

New School Term Opens

More Uniformity To Be Demanded
In Following Course of Study.—
Promotion By Examination, Hereafter.

The public schools of Maui opened last Monday morning after the summer vacation, with substantially the same enrollment as last year, as far as can be judged from incomplete reports from different parts of the county. It will probably be a week or more, Supervising Principal Case states, before the exact enrollment can be determined, and reports submitted to him.

This is the first term of school under the new regime of Territorial Superintendent H. W. Kinney and the new school board, and a number of changes are being put into effect, both as to the course of study, and in system of instruction, over former years. Principal Case states that from now on the department will insist on a close adherence to the course of study prescribed for the different grades, and in order to insure this, promotions from grade to grade are to be made on examination very largely. In this way it is sought to obviate the old trouble of lack of uniformity in like grades in different schools, which rendered it impossible for a pupil to change from one school (Continued on Page 6.)

Some handsome banners in the Maui colors (gold and black) have already been finished, which will serve to indicate the position of the various civic bodies in the Army, which will be the principal meeting place. These banners will be later presented to the several organizations.

Lauder to Sing In Honolulu

Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch comedian, who passed through Honolulu a few months ago en route to Australia, is now on his way back, and this time he has agreed to give a concert while his steamer is in port—something he did not do on his outward trip. He will be in Honolulu on Friday, October 9, and the concert will be a matinee performance in the Bijou theater.

James A. Dunbar, of Honolulu, who is making arrangements for the concert, has just had a letter from Mr. Lauder, in which the singer expressed the hope of being able to repay in a measure the entertainment given him and his wife by the Ad Club. He stated that he is bringing with him a company of the finest entertainers in the world; but the fact that it is Lauder's company is a sufficient guarantee that every member is a star.

In this company are: Selwyn Driver, Humor at the Piano; Ernest Sewell, Living Marionettist; Kitty Ryan, Irish Ballad Singer; all of London; and Irene Beresony, Hungarian Gipsy Cymbalist assisted by Yoka, (From the Orpheum Circuit, U. S. A.)

Lauder himself will appear for seven songs, and will be on the stage one hour and ten minutes. The entire program calls for about two and a half hours time.

The little Scotchman has had a wonderful season in Australia, and Mr. Dunbar feels confident that he and his company will be the biggest drawing card Honolulu has ever had.
